Dr. M U DUA

HR Reformer/President/Editor
Writer, Director & Global Leader "AIHRA"

Dr M U Dua has been a person of high acumen since his childhood. Unlike the children of his age he was least interested in playing and he always wanted to achieve something different in life. He was always designated as wiser person among his peers due to his discretion and inquisitiveness. He completed his primary education from his village and secured first rank in secondary education. During his Secondary education he secured first place in national level scholarship and completed his studies from one of the most renowned school of the District.

He always wanted to choose science stream as Mathematics was his favourite subject, however financial conditions of the family forced him to take commerce at his senior Secondary level. His dream of being an Engineer could not be achieved and he completed his graduation and post graduation from Patna University in Commerce Stream.

After completing Post graduation with First division, He undertook the studies of prestigious Chartered Accountant course. Alongside, He also started preparing for IAS exams and enrolled himself in evening college of University of Delhi to pursue study in Law.

Considering his inquisitive brain he always wanted to accomplish something different in life and increasing inequality and discrimination in society has given him push to do a little extra for society.

During his journey in business and commerce in the phases of success and failure he got comprehensive understanding of human values.

Contd...

Pledge of working for welfare of the society and choose area of Human rights and he established All India Human Rights Association (AIHRA) in 1987 by bringing together certain prominent persons of society. He got this association registered with Registrar of Societies in India.

Dr. Dua got AIHRA associated with international bodies such as United Nations, International Bar Association (London), American Bar Association (USA), Legal services Authority and few other authorities in India and abroad.

Due to his continuous efforts AIHRA today is engaged in creating new bench marks for bringing awareness of Human Rights not only in India but globally. Many Intellectuals have also started joining him in this noble cause.

Dr M U Dua has ploughed, watered and flourished AIHRA through his incessant endeavours. He has worked with full zeal and attention for preservation and awareness of human rights. He has travelled across country Five times for bringing awareness about human rights and he has also travelled few neighbouring countries with the same agenda of promoting awareness about human rights.

Today AIHRA has turned into a Big Tree with its branches spreading in India and abroad and its roots are deepening day by day. Dr M U Dua has dedicated his entire life for Protection, Preservation and Awareness of Human Rights.

STATEMENT OF WORK & ACHIEVEMENTS

Dr. M. U. Dua has distinguished himself as a man of multifaceted personality. Combining in himself traits of an Active Sociologist, administrator and successful businessman is career of over 40 years, he has been associated with numerous social & business activities. All of his activities were aimed at improving the conditions of the society and to generate employment.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Since inception of his career, Dr. M U Dua has been involved in multifaceted activities. He early in his career was asked to become the Secretary of Republic Housing Co-Operative society at Patna, Bihar. His administrative skills ensured the early completion of the co-operative society work.

After seeing the deteriorated social conditions of the society, Dr M U Dua had conceived the idea of creating All India Human Rights Association in 1987, and got the same Registered under Societies Registration Act. The object of the society is to work with dedication for the noble cause of Human Rights Protection and Promotion, provide Justice for All, Economic upliftment of the under-privileged, providing education, love, peace and harmony and friendship, national and international integration by exchange of ideas and ethos amongst neighboring countries and the people of the rest of the world.

In the year 2004, Dr M U Dua had undertaken and successfully completed a 70-days Human Rights Awareness journey, traveling in 22 States of the Indian Union, including Nepal. Dr M U Dua had paraded his team of social activists to a number of districts, blocks and talukas. Met a number of clusters of Adivasi peoples and supported them to mitigate their crises.

Dr M U Dua was also instrumental in restoring the hutments of 2, 00,000 people from the private builders who otherwise would have destroyed them and built skyscrapers. This he had done in collaboration with the District Administration by raising voice against the Private Builders and taking the cases of real plight of the inhabitants to the Government.

Again, Dr M U Dua, had embarked on a world's first 200-days journey mainly to spread awareness of Universal Declaration of Human Rights and bringing about cultural integration. This journey had begun on the Republic Day, i.e. 26th January 2006 and culminated on the Independence Day (15th August 2006). In this journey, he had covered 33 States in India, besides seven SAARC Member Countries – Maldives, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal and Pakistan, covering a distance of around fifty thousand kilometers on road. This journey was flagged by the then Director of United Nations Information Centre's Director.

During his yatra, he had met all the Panchayat Presidents and supported them in various ways. He had spent most of his precious life time with the people, listening to their plight and wherever possible brought relief to them. He had organized a number of "nukkad sabhas" in association with the Panchayats, which had resulted in sorting out many disputes. He had traveled the entire criss-cross of the country, Kashmir to Kanyakumari, and Cuttack to Kohima. He understands the real plight of the downtrodden.

Again, Dr M U Dua, had embarked on a world's first 224-days AIHRA's 3rd International Rights journey for Awareness and Empowerment of Youth and Raise Your voice on Human rights. This journey had Begun on the 1st May, 2013 (Labour Day) and culminated on the World Human Rights Day (10th December, 2013).

In this journey, he had covered 34 States in India, besides seven SAARC Member Countries. Covering a distance of around Seventy Five thousand kilometers on road. This journey was Jantar Mantar, New Delhi.

Under National Legal Services Authority, Dr M U Dua has been the Ex-officio member of the Delhi Legal Services Authority. He was instrumental in creating a number of legal aid centres in the Delhi, Jharkand, Kashmir, Kanyakumari, Punjab, etc. Out of over 7,50,000 civil cases registered, by sheer conciliation proceedings, he could with the help of legal advisors solved them to courts.

The types of cases he had sorted out on conciliation proceedings, among others, include, relationship disputes, money / inheritance disputes, senior citizen disputes, women issues, sexual harassment, dowry harassment, gender discrimination, sibling conflicts, matrimonial disputes, to mention a few.

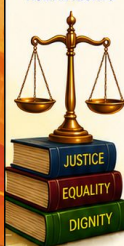

He has the charisma to pull crowd on sheer hard work. Since he is connected with the real plight of the downtrodden.

HUMAN RIGHTS

The real needy people, he has considered a 'messiah' of poor and downtrodden people. He shares his wisdom to the national and international fora wherever he is invited to attend to.

By appreciating his good Samaritan work, United Nations, New York under Economic and Social council (ECOSOC) had affiliated All India Human Rights Association, New Delhi.

Dr M U Dua has been organizing International summit on 10th December every year on the occasion of the World's Human Rights Day on various subjects related to Human Rights. He had organized such summits in auditoria, viz., Siri Fort, Talkatora, ITPO, Bhai Das Auditorium in Mumbai, Birla Auditorium in Jaipur, Guru Nanak Auditorium in Amritsar, Kanyakumari, Hyderabad, Chennai and various other States.

In the sojourn of 40 years, Dr M U Dua had associated with AIHRA the personalities, viz., Late Shri Giyani Zail Singh ji, Ex-President of India (first Chair Person of AIHRA), eminent jurists, leading advocates, retired civil servants, journalists and social activists. Currently, AIHRA boasts of 850 Centers spread across 32 States of Indian Union with approximately 1 crore people plus. Besides, AIHRA has representation in UK, Canada, USA, Denmark, Thailand, Indonesia and other countries.

Dr M U Dua was traveled 5 time All over India and other countries.

Dr M U Dua was the inspirational source for creating National Human Rights Commission, since his was the first Registered NGO on Human Rights in Asia. He had brought the apathy of downtrodden to light, which had resulted.

In certain Acts, viz., Child Labour Act, Right to Information Act, Domestic Violence Act.

Dr M U Dua, a multi-faceted personality, a businessman, a social activist from college days, a philanthropist and a true family person, had blended all the roles without much demur and has been active in meeting all sorts of people in the clusters of various villages.

As a social activist and a media person, he was invited by a number of national and international bodies to speak on human values and the plight of citizens of the country. He has been rendering speech on various issues consecutively for the past three years at the Brahma Kumari Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya in Mount Abu.

Dr M U Dua also publishes a fortnightly multi-colour AIHRA Human Rights magazine and writes on social apathies and suggests remedies also. He has a deeper concern for health and medicare activities. In this context, he had formed a charitable body registered in the name of Dua Global Trust, which had already opened a unit of Dua Medicare Centre in east Delhi to treat the poor, absolutely free of cost. His wife, a medical doctor, renders her social service in this unit.

Dr M U Dua also appreciates the need for spreading literacy among socially and economically weaker section of the society. He, under the banner of All India Human Rights Association, has been running a number of Free Literacy Camps in various parts of the Country. It is giving excellent results in J J clusters (slum) and among downtroddens.

In sum, he is the man with greater wisdom as he spent his precious life time in the midst of those whose sufferings are yet to be mitigated by the Democratic Secular country of this magnitude and vastness. He is a man of principles and dedication. Connecting and networking with people is his passion.

Mrs. Kokila Ben, Mukesh Ambani, Neeta Ambani with 'AIHRA' President Mr. M.U. Dua

“All human beings are born with equal and inalienable rights and fundamental freedoms. The United Nations is dedicated to respecting, promoting, and protecting the human rights of every individual. This commitment stems from the UN Charter, which reaffirms the faith of the world's peoples in fundamental human rights and in the dignity and worth of the human person. In the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations has articulated—in clear and simple terms—the rights to which every individual is equally entitled. These rights are yours. These rights are ours. The President of 'AIHRA' believes that freedom is not true freedom without the protection of human rights. Whether a person is white or black, Hindu or Muslim, Sikh or Christian or of any other faith, and regardless of the language they speak, they are first and foremost a human being; thus, all individuals are alike, possess equal human rights, and are entitled to enjoy them. 'AIHRA' has been committed to this mission from the very beginning. We are confident that success will ultimately be ours. Come, join 'AIHRA'—you are welcome.”

Human Rights in India

Human rights in India are anchored in the Constitution, which guarantees core Fundamental Rights (Articles 14–32) like equality, freedom of speech, and the right to life and liberty, alongside statutory watchdogs like the National Human Rights Commission.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS

- Right to Equality (Articles 14–18): Ensures equal treatment before the law and bans discrimination based on religion, race, caste, sex, or birthplace.
- Right to Freedom (Articles 19–22): Guarantees speech, assembly, movement, and protection of life and personal liberty.
- Right against Exploitation (Articles 23–24): Prohibits human trafficking, forced labor, and child labor in risky jobs.
- Freedom of Religion (Articles 25–28): Allows people to practice and spread their religion freely.
- Constitutional Remedies (Article 32): Lets citizens approach the Supreme Court or High Courts directly if their rights face violations.

KEY LEGISLATION

- Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993: Sets up national and state human rights commissions to investigate abuses.
- Right to Information (RTI) Act, 2005: Promotes transparency and government accountability.
- Specialized Protection Acts: Laws focused on safeguarding women, children, and Scheduled Castes and Tribes (SC/ST).
